LIBRARY NEWS

The SWS library continues to be popular with members. As of the last meeting, 50 DVDs and 14 books were checked out. Paid members can check out up to four titles.

Thanks to Julene, active members can now send a request for a specific DVD or book to Cheryl Keaveney, the SWS librarian directly from the DVD/Book list page on the SWS website. Simply click on Library under the membership heading at the top of the page. At the top right of that page there is a box that says "Review or Request a DVD/Book". Please write in the title and author and Bess and I will reserve the requested materials for you (assuming they are returned when due). We'd also appreciate if members could complete a review of the materials they've checked out. If people are interested we will publish the reviews once we have a reasonable number of responses.

COMMUNITY WORKSHOP

This workshop, for up to 50 children, will be held at the Downtown Reno Library on Saturday, May 2, from 11 a.m.-1 p.m., with set-up starting at 9:30 a.m. We still need four more instructors, one more person to greet the children and mat the paintings, and five more general helpers. This workshop is the weekend before Mother's Day, so the focus will be on creating a Mother's Day gift for their mother, grandmother, or other caregiver. Please call me with any questions or if you are available to help. Thank you!

PUBLICITY & OUTREACH

I continue to go to the monthly meetings of the Reno Arts Consortium, where I announce upcoming SWS exhibits and other events. I also post notices on the Online Calendars about our exhibits and demos. I am open to speaking to groups about Art Angels or SWS in general, so let me know of any additional opportunity to inform the community about all the exciting work we are doing.

Thanks again for all your support!

New book to be launched by SWS member, Tricia Poulos Leonard!

Tricia has written a guide to artists who wish to take their work to the professional level. It consists of 12 steps to be taken on the road to becoming a working and successful artist. Tricia wrote the book to help all the creative people she has encountered through her classes and coaching activities. She says, “I think everyone has artistic tendencies, but I find many people who don’t know where to start in actuating them.” Included are interviews with national and international artists who share their stories with the reader. The book launches through Amazon on April 9th. The cost of the book is $14.95, but Tricia is making a special offer to us. There will be a prelaunch on March 18th of an e-book for just 99 cents. Order through Amazon on that date and you will get a preview of the book. You may want to have a hard copy after seeing what is contained in this informative book!
