The postcard has been chosen and is now available. IMPORTANT DATES: Registration is now open on the website and will close at midnight on Thursday, November 7th. Now is the time to put this date on your calendar and volunteer. Please contact Marjee no later than the 1st week in December. We will have all five categories in the judged show but there should be some kind of botanical element incorporated into the paintings. A Chair will be needed. Contact the 2020 Exhibit Coordinator Margee Smith if you would like to chair this show at marjee198@gmail.com.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, RONNIE RECTOR

November 2019

Happy FALL! We had our first snow here while I was away in Greece. I didn't miss it, although it was very hot and humid where I was. I first spent a week on Milos, an arid, desolate volcanic island in the Aegean Sea, a 3-hour ferry ride from the port near Athens. I made it through that wild ride unscathed, but 90% of the other passengers didn't (let's just say I pity the ferry employee who was on clean-up duty that day). Our hotel room on Milos faced east and every morning either my friend or I would open the front door to wake the other up, and we'd enjoy dawn coming up over the sea. It was glorious!

The second week was spent in a small town on the sea, about 15 miles from Athens, at the home of my friend's daughter's in-laws. They were to be our travel guides for the week, and that arrangement worked well until the grandmother was rushed to the hospital early in our stay. So my friend and I resorted to the metro, taxis and buses, like normal tourists. We spent four days exploring Athens and I was in tourist heaven, let me tell you!

I have been fascinated by the Caryatids in Athens for years, and when I got to the top of the Acropolis that morning and spotted them across the plateau, I literally teared up and couldn't speak for several minutes. A caryatid is a sculpted female figure that takes the place of a column on temples and such. Although the six now holding up the porch roof of the Erechtheion temple are replicas (the originals were removed to save them from additional pollution damage), they are still a sight to behold up there in the hot sun. We visited the New Acropolis Museum afterwards and found the five originals, and an empty base for the sixth (swiped by a British dude in the 1800's and on display in the British Museum in London). These big girls are 2 tons each, a little over 7 feet tall, and 2,400 years old.

I took enough reference photos for five lifetimes, I believe. But I'll be honest...Greece isn't my cuppa tea, and I was oh so glad to arrive back in the States, where toilets flush, buildings are diverse, and people actually have pets.

It's good to be back! Ronnie

ART ANGELS

We have gotten off to a slower start than usual this year, due to changes at two of the schools we were scheduled to visit, plus some travel plans. But our one classroom visit so far—with a new teacher at Glenn Duncan Elementary—went extremely well, with the teacher saying she had never seen her students so enthusiastic or so focused! Many thanks to Linda James, who did an awesome job instructing the class! She was assisted by Mary Ann Quaglieri, Linda's friend Marilyn Jones, and me. The teacher immediately afterwards went to talk with two of her colleagues, who she said would be calling to schedule visits to their classes!

For the classes scheduled for the remainder of 2019, we have the following needs for volunteers:

Tuesday, November 12, 1-3:30 p.m. Bernice Mathews Elementary, 2750 Elementary Drive, Reno: 2 helpers

Monday, November 18, 1-3:30 p.m. Bernice Mathews Elementary, 2750 Elementary Drive, Reno: We have enough helpers!

Tuesday, November 26, 1-3:30 p.m. Bernice Mathews Elementary, 2750 Elementary Drive Reno: 2 helpers

Tuesday, December 3, 1-3:30 p.m. Bernice Mathews Elementary, 2750 Elementary Drive, Reno: 2 helpers

Tuesday, December 10, 12:10-3:30 p.m. Alice Smith Elementary, 1070 Beckwourth Drive, Golden Valley: 3 helpers

Tuesday, December 17, 12:10-3:30 p.m. Alice Smith Elementary, 1070 Beckwourth Drive, Golden Valley: 2-3 helpers

ART ANGELS HOLIDAY WORKSHOP, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 9-11:30 A.M., WILBUR D. MAY MUSEUM: We need five more instructors, one more person to Greet the Children & Mat the Paintings, and eight general helpers.

Please contact me, if you have questions or can help with any of the above needs. Thanks so much!

ART ANGELS SILENT AUCTION & RAFFLE: This is our major fund-raiser for Art Angels. It will run from Saturday, December 7 (the day of the SWS Brunch) through noon on Saturday, December 14 (right after the Art Angels Workshop ends). We will be raffling off paintings (original or giclee) donated by our guest artists and will be selling raffle tickets: $5 for one, $20 for five, $50 for fifteen tickets; I will need 1-2 people to cover each 2-hour shift on 12/7, 12/8, 12/11, 12/12, 12/13, and 12/14, during Museum hours (10-4 on Saturdays, Wednesday, Thursday, & Friday; noon-4 on Sunday 12/8). Please let me know when you would be available to sell tickets and talk about Art Angels. Thank you!

We also will be doing a Silent Auction of original small paintings (preferably matted and framed, no larger than 16"x20") donated by you, our wonderful SWS members! Please let me know if you have a painting or two to donate, the title(s) of the painting(s) and the approximate value of each, and I will make up the bid sheets. You can bring your paintings to the Brunch on 12/7 (by 9:30, please) or I can arrange to meet you in advance. Thanks!

OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE $14/HOUR AS A PUBLIC ART DOCENT FOR THE CITY OF RENO'S WINTER LIGHT FESTIVAL, DECEMBER 7-14; CONTACT ALEXIS HILL OR MEGHAN BURNER OR GO TO WWW.RENOCULTURE.COM FOR MORE INFORMATION. I found out about this at the Reno Arts Consortium meeting, which anyone can attend: third Thursday of each month, 9-10:30 a.m. in the McKinley Arts & Culture building. At the last meeting I also connected with a new Publicity opportunity: Double Scoop Arts in Nevada.

I look forward to hearing from you and working with you to keep Art Angels and SWS thriving!

Eric Wiegardt, AWS DF, NWS has made an indelible mark on the American and International art scene, being declared in the top ten list of contemporary watercolor masters. He is one of the few artists in the world to be awarded both the GOLD MEDAL and the DOLPHIN FELLOW from the oldest and most prestigious watercolor organization - the AMERICAN WATERCOLOR SOCIETY.

This workshop is for those who want to loosen up in watercolor. Painting techniques and a philosophy of design will encourage bold, loose paintings. Lectures and demonstrations will be easily understood and helpful. There will be ample time for students to try new concepts presented in a fun environment.

There is now a chapter of Urban Sketchers, in Reno. For those unfamiliar with this international organization, here is the link: <http://www.urbansketchers.org/>. At present our chapter is only reachable through Facebook as "Urban Sketchers of Northern Nevada". It's a public group and there is no charge to join. The founder, Deb Ballinger, has been arranging meets nearly every Wednesday, although with winter coming on perhaps this will change. One of the beauties of being an urban sketcher is wherever you travel, there may be a chapter at work while you're there, and you can draw with them.
