“The Artists Co-op Of Reno presents The Sierra Watercolor Society”, July 1 - 31, Ronnie Rector Chair.

We had a great exhibit of 39 watercolor paintings which could be up to 5 years old and on supports such as Aquaboard, watercolor canvas, Yupo, etc. These paintings did not require matting or framing under glass, as long as they were protected from surface damage by layers of wax, varnish or other permanent protective sealer. Regularly framed watercolors were also accepted and there were 24 Bin Art pieces. There was an in-person reception on Sunday, July 4. Two paintings and one bin art piece sold.

MORE NEWS FROM THE BOARD

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, DIANE SEWELL

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2021

It seems like we go from one disturbing event to another. First, Covid 19 and now we must deal with smoke and fire. There will be an end to this and the only thing to worry about is to enter your paintings in the winter show at the May Museum. Relief is in sight. It was wonderful to have a real SWS general meeting with real people, even with masks. Colleen Reynolds did a wonderful informative demo that we all enjoyed. As mentioned, our winter show and holiday brunch is coming and hopefully masks will be a thing of the past by then. It will be a treat to see all of your bright smiling youthful faces again. Stay safe.

- Diane

NEXT BOARD MEETING

September 11, 2021, 9:30 a.m.
at Artists Co-Op Gallery
627 Mill Street, Reno, NV
All are welcome

NEXT GENERAL MEETING

October 16, 2021

Social time starts at 10:00 am followed by the General Meeting at 10:30 am. Any snacks should be single wrapped and bring tongs if you have them. Lunch begins at 12:00 noon. The Free Demo by Carl Purcell will be from 1:00 - 3:00 pm. Meetings are held at Temple Sinai, 3405 Gulling Road, Reno, NV.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership Chair Sally Dupre reported that we have 111 members. New and renewing members for 2022 can register and pay online starting November 1, 2021. All members must register online even if you are already a member.

The Portrait Society of Reno

We meet every Wednesday with a live model. Kay Genasci at 369-2465 for questions.

OPEN BOARD POSITIONS For 2022:

- Vice President - could be a committee of 3-4 persons including the Vice President. Arrange and facilitate workshops with leading watercolor artists. According to our bylaws, SWS cannot continue without a Vice President. The Board voted to offer the Vice President one free workshop during their 2 year stint. There was some concern at the August General Meeting that as a 501 non-profit, SWS could not offer a free workshop and that it could be considered paying a member. Ronnie Rector checked with the executive director of another 501C3 charitable organization which gives away millions of dollars. He told her that SWS can provide a free seat in a workshop to a board member as part of our Operating budget under "Training", as long as SWS is paying for the workshop and not paying the Board member. This training opportunity is seen as 'enhancing' the Board's knowledge of processes important to our organization, and in no way jeopardizes our 501 status.
- Scholarship Chair - work with local entities, possibly teachers, to award SWS scholarships.
- Newsletter Chair - create and post bi-monthly newsletter on website.
- Exhibit Chair - Coordinate with show chairs and venues.
- Bio Books Coordinator - take care of the "Bio Books" we provide at exhibits.

Secretary Vickie Behrens has offered to incorporate the Archivist position into her Secretarial duties. Please contact the current chair or the SWS President for more information if you are interested in any of these positions.

ART ANGELS

Art Angels Workshops: We had two Art Angels “Discover Watercolor” workshops as part of Artown: both on Friday, July 9, at the Wilbur D. May Museum. There were 21 students in the morning session and 13 in the afternoon. Instructors were Nancy Podewils-Baba (both sessions), Alicia Cobb (morning), Marilyn Kuenzli-Howell (morning), and Anette Rink (afternoon). We were assisted by Vickie Behrens (both sessions), Kathy Martin (both sessions), Gail Kramer (both sessions), George Baba (both sessions), and Nancy LeSage (morning), who warmly greeted the participants, changed water, and blow-dried and matted paintings. For these workshops we received $250 from Artown, to cover supplies. :) We also got very positive feedback from all the participants, and have already registered 20 children for our upcoming Art Angels Workshop on Saturday, November 27, from 9:30 (9:15 check-in)-11:30 a.m. at the Wilbur D. May Museum. Registrants include some children who called too late to be included in the July workshop. For the November 27th workshop, I will need a couple more instructors and another couple helpers, as we hope to be able to accommodate 50 children, ages 6-12. Please let me know if you are available to instruct or to help. Thank you!

Art Angels Classroom Visits: I have been in touch with some of the teachers whose classrooms we visited prior to COVID, as well as the principal of a new elementary school which a former Art Angels student is now attending. We will be scheduling three classroom visits to Spanish Springs Elementary next spring, and are waiting to hear back from the others. I doubt the schools will be ready to welcome visitors until the COVID situation has stabilized, but I will keep you posted. Thanks for your interest in helping with this program!

Art Angels Silent Auction & Raffle: This will be held at the Wilbur D. May Museum from Saturday, November 27 through noon on Saturday, December 4 (the day of the SWS Brunch). Prior to COVID, we held a Silent Auction and Raffle each December, to raise funds for Art Angels supplies. We raffled off paintings donated by our guest artists, and held a Silent Auction of original, usually small/framed (or at least matted) paintings that were donated by SWS members. When Eric Wiegardt was here in spring 2020, he also donated an original, full-size painting (unframed) that he wanted us to auction off, to help Art Angels, so his painting will also be available for bidding. I need donations of original paintings for this event, as well as people to oversee (“babysit”) the Auction & Raffle: to sell raffle tickets and answer questions, during Museum hours. For the Silent Auction you can bring your one or two painting(s) to the October meeting, or by 9 a.m. on November 27, or you can contact me to arrange pick-up.

PUBLICITY

I continue to attend the monthly Reno Arts Consortium meetings whenever I am in town, to keep other arts groups informed about our activities. I also send notices about our exhibits and demos to online calendars. I am quite willing to talk with anyone about SWS or Art Angels. Please feel free to have someone contact me for information. Thank you.

Please let me know if you have questions about any of the above activities, or if you are available to help. Thank you so much for your support!

CARL PURCELL'S "Simplify Complex Subjects"

Registration opens July 1. Member rate: $325, Non-member rate: $385

Carl Purcell returns to Reno by popular demand! His relaxed way of teaching puts students at ease. Learn how to shift your focus from the items in your subject to the simple patterns that will make stronger paintings: "The secret to realism in painting is not to be found in more details. Have you ever felt frustrated because no matter how much detail you add, the painting does not match your inner vision? My approach can help you understand what you are seeing, and how to respond to the visual patterns that are the basic structure of all good painting."

Carl is the author of the popular watercolor book "Painting With Your Artist's Brain" and "Drawing With Your Artist's Brain". His work hangs in numerous private and corporate collections, as well as museums. In addition, Carl's work has been featured in many publications and magazines. He has achieved signature membership status in the National Watercolor Society and honor member status in the Utah Watercolor Society. www.carlpurcell.com
